

Weather /Emergency/Storm/Hurricane Liability Release

I, _____ hereby release Grey Lady Marine, LLC. (GLM) from any and all liability associated with any emergency hauling, storage and launching of my vessel. I acknowledge and agree that inclement weather is considered an “Act of God” and although Grey Lady Marine, LLC. will do their utmost to safely haul, load onto trailer, transport, block, stand and store my boat during this emergency situation, GLM will not be held liable in any way for damages and/or losses incurred in any and all phases of the work described above or while stored on the property. I also agree to pay all haul, transport, storage and launch fees in accordance with the emergency fees implemented by the yard during the storm prior to my boat being re-launched or leaving the premises.

All haul outs due to weather or damaged vessel emergencies, storms / hurricanes are carried out by customer request only. Unless previous agreements have been made in writing, your boat must be brought dockside to the GLM haul out slip for emergency haul out. GLM will retrieve vessels from slips and moorings at an additional cost with previous arrangements in place. Boats are re-launched as soon as possible in an order convenient to GLM after the weather has passed.

Storage Customers $25 per foot*

Non-storage Customers $40 per foot*

After hours non-storage $50 per foot*

* Sailboats may incur an additional fee for blocking and placing on stands, due to the additional time and equipment required to handle these vessels. Standard $109.00 per hourly labor charges will apply.
